

What are the swing out side bar kits for roll bars and cages and how do they work?

The swing out side bar kits hinge the side bar so it opens and closes just like your car door allowing for easy entrance and exit from the vehicle. Also, with the swing out side bar kits installed you can completely remove the side bars for every day driving and just install them when you go to the track. See the attached .pdf file for a schematic.

<https://www.spohn.net/support/questions/40/>